LFCU Employee Spotlight... ...Sue Weigel

Lifelong Manistique resident Sue Hinkson Weigel joined LFCU in the spring of 2007. During the past nine years Sue has gained experience having been crossed-trained in a number of positions, including Frontline Teller, Head Teller, Compliance, Loans, and Member Education Services.

Sue and her team strive to make each and every member's Limestone Federal Credit Union experience exceptional. "It's about trust and feeling comfortable with people you're doing business with. It's not unusual for our members to walk through our front doors and be asked how their kid's basketball game was, or how their daughter's wedding turned out, or even how their grandparents are doing," said Weigel. A member may even show up with a beloved pet and is delighted by our interest in their furry little friend.

A self-confessed movie buff, Sue is a huge Marvel fan! Sue and her family enjoy game nights, their camp, and, surprisingly, is an avid moon watcher! Experimental cooking is also something Sue and her family enjoy, coming up with different recipes and trying things they've never had before.

Sue resides in Gulliver and is the proud mother of a grown son and a teenage daughter.
